

ABOUT AMATEURPIANISTS

AmateurPianists cordially welcomes you to Russian Repertoire: Music of Slavic Composers, a recital featuring music by some of the most famous composers from Russian-speaking countries, as well as two compositions by one of our very own members of AmateurPianists. You'll also hear original arrangements of pieces by Shostakovich, Tchaikovsky, Rachmaninoff and Khachaturian.

Since February 2011, AmateurPianists has provided music performance and education opportunities for pianists of all skill levels through recitals, masterclasses, and lectures. Some of our past highlights include George Fee's "Mastering Schumann" masterclass, a recital on "Sacred Music for the Keyboard," programs of original compositions, a recital devoted to French Composers, and much more. We recently debuted our San Diego International Piano Competition for Outstanding Amateurs in July 2016.

We listen to our members! If you have an idea for a recital or lecture, or you can recommend a recital space, please let one of our board members know. You may contact us through our website AmateurPianists.org or send an email to info@AmateurPianists.org.

Our mission is threefold: to provide opportunities for piano performance, to educate through masterclasses and lectures, and to host an international piano competition for outstanding amateurs in San Diego.

AmateurPianists endeavors to provide an enjoyable and supportive atmosphere for piano enthusiasts, bridging performers with San Diego audiences. Please visit us at AmateurPianists.org for more information and follow us on Facebook, YouTube, and Twitter. AmateurPianists is a nonprofit, tax-exempt 501(c)(3) organization. Your tax-deductible donation allows us to create more events for classical music-lovers, such as yourself!
